DecoBoard has over 30,000 variations due to the different thicknesses, formats and decors plus structures.

PrimeBoard has one structure and one format with several lacquering/coating finishes (colors) to make up 2500 variations.

Attributes that affect the variations:

- Structures - different press plates give the structure of the surface
- Thicknesses - the specifications are the same for all possible variations of the Prime Board
- Formats - same panels only produced or cut in different widths, lengths
- Decorative elements
